Claudia and family, so very sorry to hear of Tim's passing. Just got the news this morning from River. I loved him as my friend and he always made me smile. I know he is in a better place now and not suffering. I will always remember his "craziness". My condolences to you all. Pat Hoffman

There has only been a certain few that got away with calling me Rob . That's my Dad and my Uncle Sonny. He bought me a guitar he tried teaching me to play cuz he thought I could sing. So many years ago. I'm sad for his family tho he has been not well for a long time . He still held his family together. When he spoke they listened. Thinking of all of you . Keep your memories close to your heart .

To Claudia and the Smith family:
I am so sorry for the your loss. Oh the memories I have of this wonderful man, I remember walking down to the R-Bar after the races and coming into the bar and Tim bringing me back where he was playing music, I enjoyed the times I got to spend with you guys. I love y'all and Tim will be missed.....love always September
