“ My heart aches that you have gone home too early. I've know you almost all my life. You baby sat for me & my sisters for years. You were like an aunt as a grew older. Always there for me. You became a friend. I loved the way you celebrated holidays. I love you girl. We will keep Dunk, the boys and the family in our prayers.

“ You was truly an amazing woman, wife, mother, and grandmother. You had so much love and care to give. After all these years you still had the love for me and my son. Thank you for accepting us into your life and never letting us go. I will miss you greatly. You are in a wonderful place now and I will see you one of these days! I love you!
