“ Anita, Kelly, and Nathan...so so sorry about Jesse. I remember him from years ago when he was a young boy...and you attended North Anderson Church of God. Many memories, Anita. He was a handful at that age! So happy to hear that Jesse raised an awesome son, Nathan. I cannot begin to know the pain, shock, and emptiness you must be experiencing. It's normal to just want time to stand still so that you can deal with this. Remember that you each will have your own journey of grieving. Sometimes you might not get what you need from one another...because you all will be grieving in your own way...at your own pace. Look to God, friends, and family for support. Cry when you need to cry...yell when you need to yell...laugh when you recall the fun times with Jesse. Your emotional roller coaster will eventually slow down. Cindy Perry

“ Dear Anita, Kelly, and sweet Nathan, I am so sorry for your loss. I only met Jesse once, but I can tell you he has left the world a treasure in Nathan. That little boy is sweet, kind, and highly intelligent. Please know that my family is praying for all of you. May God bring you comfort during this difficult time.
