“ Larry, you saved my daughter and myself. You gave us a home, gave us love. You helped me be a better mother to my daughter with your wisdom. We loved each other in our own way. We fought, we argued, but at the end of the day, I loved you and i knew you loved me and my daughter. larry you taught me so much, you loved eryn as you would your own. I loved your stories and larry I LOVED your daughters and family. You were an amazing man. I can only pray my two sons be like you. You were my best friend larry. Ups and downs... But I can and will never ever forget that you saved me and my daughter. Love you larry.. You will never ever be forgotten and will always be part of my story.

“ Larry was a man of many talents. Ability to build anything from the ground up and was highly respected in that regard. Most of all he was a great friend who listened to my problems or lend a hand by his means. He was a changed man who was all about his kids especially when it came to his girls. He was proud of their beauty and smarts. I've not only lost a brother in-law I lost a good friend.
