

Marsha Jean Humphrey

April 28, 1950 - September 5, 2020

Marsha Jean Humphrey, 70, of Anderson, passed away September 5, 2020 at Countryside Manor after a brief illness. She was born on April 28, 1950 in Anderson, Indiana to the late George and Anna (Walker) Humphrey.

Marsha graduated from Madison Heights High School in 1968.

She was an avid basketball and baseball fan, listened to oldies, 60's, 70's and 80's music all day, everyday, and loved being around her family.

She worked at Main Street Fruit Market, Burger King, and Anderson News Center.

Marsha is survived by her loving siblings, Joyce Humphrey, David Humphrey, and Georgia Humphrey; nephew, Evan Humphrey; special cousin, Barbara (Derek) Clarson, and several cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents; grandparents, Charles and Vellissa (Castor) Humphrey, and Russell and Ola (Janes) Walker; three uncles, and seven aunts.

Graveside services will be held Friday, September 11, 2020 at 11 am at Anderson Memorial Park.

The family wishes to thank Countryside Manor staff for their loving care of Marsha.

“ Sorry for your loss Joyce. You two girls were always together. I met you two when we all lived at the same complex. You two were wonderful. Judy “ Marsha was my late sister Nancy Anderson's best friend in high school. Nancy passed 13 yrs ago. Marsha came cross country on a bus to see Nancy when we first moved to California in the late 60s, took one look around the bus station and got right back on the bus back to Anderson. We all laughed but couldn't blame her. She and Nancy are together once again.
