

Maxine (Pierce) Boman Mitchell

April 26, 1929 - June 7, 2017

Our wonderful mother left this earthly existence at her home in Anderson, Indiana on June 7, 2017. She was born in Indianapolis on April 26, 1929 and the family moved back to Kentucky shortly thereafter. Mom grew up in a large family consisting of her mother and daddy (Ella Graham and Herhsell Pierce), and siblings, Herbert, Edith, Gladys, Charley Norman, Uldene, Doris, Lonnie and Shannon. Mom moved from Kentucky to Anderson in 1946 to seek work and adventure like so many others at the time where she met our dad, William P. Boman, Sr. They were married in 1948 and two sons, William P. Boman, Jr. and Timothy A. (Lisa) Boman came from that union. She married Clifford Mitchell in 1972, and lived a long and happy life with him until his passing in 1998.

She is survived by her two sons, and daughter-in-law, two granddaughters (Gentry & Emily), sisters, Edith Froman and Uldene Scott; brothers, Lonnie (Sarah) Pierce, and Shannon (Brenda) Pierce. She is also survived by numerous and loving nieces, nephews, friends, neighbors, and VERY SPECIAL ADOPTED FAMILY, Drs. Carol Clark and Chris Melin and their two sons, Kurt and Daniel.

Mom was an unbelievably fun and outgoing people person who enjoyed life, her family and friends, and loved her church family and pastor, John Hackney at Cross Roads United Methodist Church. Her homes throughout her life were always an open refuge for all where the sounds of Music and Laughter was always a constant. She was a wonderful cook and a master crochet artist whose afghan pieces grace many a home. She loved to sing, dance, could pick a guitar, and had an encyclopedic knowledge of Country and Western music. She could be opinionated with no shortage of speaking her mind, but always loving and compassionate. Tim would like to say to mom, "You will be forever and always in my heart. Thank you for giving me your unconditional love and support through life's journeys and trials". Billy would like to say to mom, "Mom was a great character whom I nicknamed "Maxine My Queen" as a teen. She had such a musical soul and told of singing gospel songs with her dad and sisters on street corners of tiny Kentucky farm towns during the depression. There was always music in the house and she would watch "American Band Stand" with me and we would dance to the new moves we saw from Philly. She was a truly great mother, supporting Tim and I in all our endeavors.....we are sure going to miss her".

A special thanks from our family to those who comforted mom these last few weeks including special friend, Angie Mata, and the Melin family. We would also like to thank Adriene Taylor, Susan Thiekie, Andrea Link at Community Home Health. Also, Kelly Hines, a fabulous caregiver the last few weeks. Additionally, Tim would like to acknowledge my brother, Billy for his devotion and 24/7 caring for mom these last two months.

Come celebrate her life with us at Loose Funeral Homes and Crematory; 200 W. 53rd Street; Anderson at 2:00 PM, Monday, June 12, 2017. There will be live music, followed by a short service at 3:00 PM by Pastor John Hackney. Burial will be immediately after at East Maplewood Cemetery, Anderson.

“ Aunt Maxine would tell you she had a lot to go to Heaven for. The last several years she had lost a lot of loved ones to death. She is in heaven with them now. She kept telling us she was ready to go see Jesus! We will miss her so much. She was so sweet to visit my Mom who could not get around very well. The last few years we had become quite close as I had to be in Indiana more to take care of my Mom who is her sister, Edith. She called me Sharon Kay and told me all about those Melin boys and her granddaughters as well as the latest about Tim and Billy. I will miss her so much. I could count on her trying to come by Mom's house for Thanksgiving and Christmas. She will look down on us Monday and say "Don't cry for me, it's wonderful up here!" We love you all!

“ Though it had been many years since I had seen Aunt Maxine, I have memories from my childhood that I will never forget. She was an amazing woman and God definitely has an angel now..

Tim and Billy I truly am sorry for your loss, but just remember shes in no pain now.

“ Our beautiful Maxine, Aunt Marty to me, you will be missed forever. You thoughtfulness, love, and laughter I will remember forever. You inspired me in so many ways. I remember as a child staying with you in several of your homes. You loved to spend time with me to teach me how to crochet, can green beans, cook, and just relax. You let me play in all your jewelry and you had a ton of colorful jewelry. Those gorgeous blue eyes and smile I will never forget. Now you are with your maker, no more pain, no more disease. May you rest in peace, may your light shine on. God bless you Aunt Marty. Love always! Connie Sue
