“ Millie was a volunteer at Community Hospital Anderson for several years. During that time she worked closely with our therapy departments. The staff in those areas thought the world of her. Her kind, sweet disposition endeared her to everyone she came in contact with. On a personal note, when my mother died in 1996, Millie came to the visitation along with some other volunteers. That act of kindness was greatly appreciated, especially given the distance they had to travel. On behalf of everyone at Community Hospital who knew Millie, please know that the family is in our thoughts and prayers.
