“ I have so many fond and just good memories of "Uncle Roy". He told me that was what I was to call him and that's because he had the biggest heart in the world. Roy was so giving and caring of others and would give the shirt off his back to help anyone in need, it didn't matter who you were. Roy will never be forgotten by myself and my family. Fly high Uncle Roy we will never forget you.

“ Thank you Uncle Roy for being an example for me. Although, there are many family members, you are one of the few I have memories with. You were present, active, and engaged in many people's lives; including your mom's and my grandma's (Gladys). You came to every event, birthday, holiday we invited you to That meant a lot to me. The last 15+ years you were so dedicated and loyal to Gladys. You never once said 'No' when asked to help with Gladys. Her life, my life was better, easier, and enriched by you. Again, thank you for being an example to me. I never heard you complain, I never heard you make excuses. My memory of you is a warm and welcoming face and smile. Often upbeat, talkative, open, funny, caring and loving. To say I was fond of you isn't adequate. You made me feel like I mattered to you. You gave me the gift of having family, someone I could call and you would be there for me. After losing most of my immediate family, I can't express how grateful I was for that. I'm proud of you. You turned your life around. You got your GED and accepted into Ivy Tech in your late 50s . That was incredible Uncle Roy! I hate to imagine not seeing you in person again i miss you so much already. Thank you for everything Uncle Roy. You made my life better
