“ Sorry I couldn't make it to Sandy's service. I had a surgery yesterday that would not allow me to travel. I wish to offer my heartfelt condolences to you Bill and if there is anyway I can be of assistance please feel free to call me 317 294-7781. Sandy from the very first time we met always treated me like family

“ Hi Bill, I just learned about Sandi's passing. I want you to know how sorry I am. I don't know if you remember me. I was married to your first room mate at Ball State, Al Ruzbasan. You and Sandi were also Godparents to my second daughter, Diana Lynn Ruzbasan, who left us in 2012. Al and I divorced in 1986. He remarried. Two years ago his smoking finally claimed him. He had had a severe heart attack and then at the end he had cancer throughout his entire body. I just thought you might want to know this. Again I am so sorry for your loss. Mary Lou (Ruzbasan) Hasara.
