“ I was very sad to hear of Tom’s passing. Our son, Michael, went to school with his son, Ryan. As a result I had the opportunity to get to know Tom over the years and he was a very nice man with a magnetic smile and friendly disposition. He loved his son Ryan and was very proud of him and treated our sons (Michael & Matthew) with total respect.

The world was made a better place by Tom and I am honored to have known him.

My heart goes out to his family and please ask should there be anything you need.

“ Tom and I met in our early twenties while working in the mental health field. He was charming, fun, smart, always laughing and always out for a good time. He eventually moved in with a couple of wild and crazy guys, one of which I eventually married. When Tom met Judy I knew it was the real thing. We shared many adventures together. Over the years our friendship grew even though we lived many miles apart. We shared pictures of our children, grieved together as our parents passed away, celebrated new jobs and prayed for each other as we grew older and life kept throwing us curve balls. The friendship I have shared with Judy and Tom is very precious to Peter and I. We are deeply saddened for Tom’s family, friends and co-workers. So as Helen Keller once said “What we once enjoyed and deeply loved we can never lose, for all that we love deeply becomes a part of us”. Peter and Kathy
