“ I just remembered all the happy times on a Friday night with him & aunt Pat at Grandma house. Also, remember no matter where we were or what holiday it was, he would make it so much fun. Uncle Vance was just comical and always doing things to make you laugh. Uncle Vance always was there for me and had my back during stressful times and would be there anytime I called. I can remember my dad Roland nicknaming him “Speedy” when he got his first car as he would speed down Locus Street. Uncle Vance, you will be missed, and I am so sorry for your loss Aunt Pat. There has never been a day when Uncle Vance was not on my mind, and I will forever cherish the memories we had growing up. Love you all Rolla Kay.
