“ Brenda and Jim, I've known your family for a very very long time and there are no words for what you 2 and Betty and kids are going through...Aaron was such a great kid as his brother was I will always remember those 2 and their politeness that they had for others and working with them and them both climbing up on our camper and fixing it for Randy...so you raised 2 wonderful boys and know that they are both together now watching over their WONDERFUL PARENTS that taught them to be good guys because you 2 as parents would take you shirt off your backs for others....Love you Jo Linda

“ I didn't know Aaron personally, but have heard wonderful things about him. I know you will be watching over all who loves you, I truly believe you will be flying high among us with you wings spread wide open comforting your wife Betty and 4 beautiful children. Rest in Peace Aaron and know you will never be forgotten.
