“ Bec, I always smile when I think of your parents sitting up in those bleachers at all of our softball games, no matter the weather. They were our (your) biggest fans. Such sweet and wonderful people. I feel so lucky to have been able to spend time with them.

“ Steve, Kathy, Becca and Graig, Just last week Nancy and I were talking about the Lenz family. Where were you and how was your Mother. We are sorry to hear of her death. Ernie and I always enjoyed visiting with both of your parents. They would usually stop by our home for a visit when they were in town. Special memories of kind and thoughtful friends. I understand your feelings as my Mother also suffered from dementia. Take care, Thinking of you. Jane Clashman, Nancy and Alan
