“ Alana was a sweet young girl in school. She was a delight to teach and a blessing to all of her class mates. She left us too soon. She was one of my facebook friends and I will miss her so much.

Alana was one of my friends and classmates at Liberty Christian. I remember me and her were the biggest Spice Girls fans! We got all dressed up to go see Spice World the movie haha! She was Sporty Spice and I was Scary Spice. I have a photo of us at my last birthday party before i moved away from Anderson. I wish we had kept in touch at least for a inprov spice girls reunion concert lol. She was always sweet and smiling and was fun to hang out with.
