Alex Scott Collins, 39, of Anderson, passed away on July 13, 2025. He was born on March 20, 1986, in Anderson, Indiana, and resided most of his life in Anderson and Muncie.

Alex graduated from Muncie Southside High School in 2004. He proudly served his country in the United States Army until he was honorably discharged as a disabled veteran.

Alex was a retro man who loved collecting anything classic and nerdy. An avid video gamer, music buff, connoisseur of classic cartoons and movies, especially Batman! A fan of nature and animals, he spent time volunteering at animal shelters, Mounds State Park, and the Red-Tail Land Conservancy. Above all, Alex was compassionate and kind.

Alex is survived by his loving wife, Savannah Lundgren; mother, Julie (Ronnie) Meyer; father, Perry (Karla) Collins and Kathy Collins; three brothers, Ryan Baker, Dillon (Hillary Robertson) Hiatt and Adam (Kerrigan) Brosio; grandparents, Nancy Vaughn and Michael and Kristy Eidson; aunt, Brenda Bucci and Lisa Collins; uncle, Todd (Heather Elwell) Grissom, Larry Collins and Mike (Karen) Collins; niece, Hattie Brosio and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Matthew Brosio; his aunt, Laurie

Lesch; his grandparents, Nila and Wayne Collins, and Larry Vaughn; and his great-grandparents, Harper and Wanda Rector.

Alex cherished his best friend and army brother of 14 years, Andres Scott Florit. Many beloved pets will miss him forever: Einstein, Pepper, Zorro, Boba Fett, Ripley, Fuyumi, Eevee, Waffles, and all his special kitties.

Visitation will be held on Monday, July 21, 2025, from 12:00 pm to 2:30 pm at Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory, Anderson, Indiana.

“ Alex was a truly great guy — kind-hearted, genuine, and full of life. He met my fiancé in January of 2024 when he took over the Pizza King on Nichol Avenue, and they became fast friends almost instantly. They had so much in common, and it was easy to see the bond they shared.

We spent Alex's birthday last year with him and Savhana at the arcade in Castleton Square Mall, racing each other and laughing like kids again. It was such a joyful day — one we'll always treasure.

At the time, I was pregnant, and after our daughter was born, Alex lit up every time he saw her. Whether it was sitting in the hot June sun while he and my fiancé worked on that massive Lincoln of his in the driveway, or just during a quick visit to the shop, he was always so happy to see that the baby remembered him. That meant a lot to him — and to us.

One of my most recent memories of Alex was on the 4th of July. Dwight put on a beautiful fireworks show in the wide open field behind our house. Alex and Savhana brought their grill and made sure we were all well-fed — there was so much food, so much laughter. He loved the fireworks, and even stayed to help clean up after I had put the baby to bed and fallen asleep.

Alex had one of the biggest hearts I've ever known. His kindness, his laughter, and the joy he brought into our lives made a lasting impact. He helped restore my faith in humanity, and I was so grateful my fiancé had a friend like him — someone who brought genuine happiness and light into our world.

We'll carry his memory with us always.
