

Alton William Knepley Jr.

March 19, 1956 - October 6, 2011

Anderson - Alton William Knepley Jr., 55, Anderson, passed away October 6, 2011 at his residence. He was born March 19, 1956 in Greenfield, Indiana, and resided in Anderson the last 10 years. Alton was a small engine mechanic and worked for Reece's Mower Service for 20 years. He is survived by his children, Bill Knepley of Arizona, Melanie J. Atkinson of Arizona, and Steve Knepley of Middletown; mother, Betty Houck Knepley; step-son, Wesley Duvall; sisters, Nancy Freeh of Texas and Carol Conley of New Castle; brother, David Knepley of Greensboro; several grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his son, Jobe Drydale and father, Alton William Knepley, Sr. Cremation will take place. www.LooseCares.com

Tribute Wall

BL

“ Good bye old friend. I enjoyed all of our conversations, and fun times. Thanks for all you taught me and your great sense of humor. I miss you greatly. Your friend always. Bill

bill lantz - October 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

BL

Hey Bill. It's been three years, hard to believe. I think I heard that your mother passed. I remember you relating to m,e how she could tell stories that would make your hair stand on end. Im still plugging away. I miss our rummage sale runs and how you could come home with a filled back seat from just a few bucks and your haggling. I leave you in God's hands. Bill

Bill Lantz - October 09, 2014 at 04:13 PM