

Amy Lynne (Kelly) Myers

May 12, 1970 - October 17, 2025

Amy Lynne (Kelly) Myers peacefully transitioned to Heaven on October 17, 2025, at the age of 55. She was born in Anderson, Indiana on May 12, 1970, and was the daughter of Michael and Brenda Kelly. She graduated from Anderson High School in 1988, and attended Ball State University and Anderson University where she studied Business. She worked at the Indiana Reformatory and Edgewood Golf Course. She was an active member of Journey Church and attended St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Amy's greatest love was her family, especially her precious children and grandchildren, who were her pride and joy. Amy had a way of making everyone feel special and cared for with the unending love that she shared so freely. She was a very kind, sweet, and gentle soul who was the beacon of light in the lives of so many. Her light will now shine even brighter from the Heavens, and she will be greatly missed by her loved ones.

Amy is survived by her children, Branden Gaunt and Kelly Myers (Zach White), Justin and Christine Smith, Ashley and Chris Webb; grandchildren, Allison, Marley, Carter, Connor and Kinsley; siblings, Jennifer (Kenny) Shock, Chad (Jenny) Kelly, Marisa (Shane) Kelly-Rigney and Courtney (Eric) Nisbeth; special friend, Jonathan Smith; and several beloved family members and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents; grandparents, Ruth and Marvin Clark and Robert and Eileen Kelly; and grandson, Bennett Gaunt and many other special friends and family.

“Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.”

Services honoring Amy will take place at Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory (200 West 53rd Street, Anderson, Indiana, 46013) on Saturday, October 25th, 2025. “ So very sorry to learn of Amy's passing. She was such a kind soul. We worked together at Payless many years ago and then reconnected at St.Mary's church and school. Brenden was in the same class as our daughter, Kate. Amy will be always remembered for her sweet smile and generosity. She, and your family, are in our prayers
