“ OMG! I have been thinking about you so much lately and I never knew you passed away, this breaks my heart. I have passed your house so many times and wanted to stop by and didn't. Amy was a good friend and we lost touch. Rest in peace.

“ Fred and Paula, It is with great sadness that we offer you our condolences in this time of obvious grief and sorrow. It should never be that a parent must lay to rest a child, but the reality is that we sometimes do so. Many loved Amy for the kind, generous, and thoughtful spirit she possessed, and as those friends share with you a sense of great loss, we hope that sharing may offer some degree of comfort to you as you remember and celebrate the life of your daughter. In sincere sympathy, Doug & Melanie
