“ Ancel was one of the funniest people I've ever met. Ancel was my uncle, every memory I have of him from when I was a kid to last time I saw him in 2022 he always had a smile. He was always making people laugh and seemed to just have a special joy about him. My kids knew about him before they ever met him because I'd tell them how cool he was. So glad we were able to see him last year and really hoped we'd have more time together. Love you Bubby.

Ancel is my brother, and my friend. I have so many wonderful memories with him. Mostly of being outdoors, kayaking, canoeing, hiking and of course laughing, a lot of laughter. I'm so grateful that I got to spend these last two years together. I love you Ancel and can't imagine our lives without you.

Ancel was an extremely talented man, but more than that, he was really kind. He did me a real favor a long, long time ago, and, fortunately, I was able to thank him many years later. I never forgot, though he did! We recorded a song together at his house years ago, called Kung Fu Bongo's. I think I still have it in my attic. What a good guy! I miss him.
