Andy was an awesome guy. A complete pleasure to work with and talk to. I believe Andy to have been a shining example of how a man should be and carry himself. It could be the worst day in that man's life, and I know perfectly he would be smiling through it. I will always remember him. My prayers and condolences go out to his family. This man is for sure a pleasure to all the others in Heaven with him.

My heart breaks for my sister Kristi, Jacob, Anna and Ashley. All of you have some of his great traits. I am sending hugs and you are all in my prayers for strength and peace.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Andy first at the same company (Sprint), and later as a contact for network backhaul provided to Verizon by IFN. When thinking of Andy, I am reminded of his wry smile, infectious laugh, and outgoing spirit. Always willing to extend a helping hand to any fellow employee, he never failed to come through.

Andy had unwavering pride in his wife and family, his heritage and his faith. His assurance that God ultimately is in control can be the best comfort to those left behind.

“ My deepest condolences to the family.

I worked with Andy for a very long time. He was definitely my go to guys when I had any questions about the way things work in the field. He afforded me the opportunity to shadow him on a couple different occasions, I know he spent twice as long as he needed to just to make sure I understood what we were doing on those nights. It was definitely a privilege to have known him, I will miss him very much.
