“ Debbie and Becky, My heart goes out to you and all your family. Aunt Rose and Uncle Andy were a vital part of my childhood, as were the two of you. The values and love that were instilled in me during those years have seen me through many things in my life. I have not now nor will I ever forget them and all the love they showed me, the lessons they taught me, and the examples they set for me. I pray God fills you with a sense of peace in this sad time, as I know full well the pain of losing your parents. But try to remember this is a time of celebration and rejoicing as both your parents are now at home with the Lord, and at peace. I know that thought helps me as I continually remember my own mother and father. I love you both and you will be in my thoughts. If you need anything at all, know that I am here. I will be at the showing and I will make sure you have contact info for me. All my love to you and your family. Terri Kay Huffman Kempfer and family
