“ To all of Uncle Ralph's and Aunt Anna Janes children, I want to express my condolences to you for the loss of your mother. Having lost my daddy, Kenneth at the young age of 42, and my mother, Mollie, last year at almost 90 years old, I know you are never ready to give up your parents. It hurts so badly and I know the pain you are all suffering. Please know that I am thinking of each of you with my deepest sympathy and with love. Your cousin, Linda.
