“ I have countless memories of Anna from my childhood and at Freewill Baptist. She was my Aunt Louise’s best friend. I have so many fond memories of Anna being at my aunts’ home when I was there. I would always help them prep for their joint yard sale each year. She was such a beautiful soul!! I hope she is having THE BEST reunion in Heaven and I know giving / getting countless hugs!! She was the SWEETEST!!

“ Loved her dearly and so happy I was able to visit with her last year. Her faith was strong and prayed for many. I truly believe she was my guardian angel through my teen years, and I may not have survived them without her prayers. She will be missed by many, but so many are waiting for her as she walks through the pearly gates. Haven’t received a beautiful Angel.
