“ To Lori and Scott, Words fall short in expressing the sorrow I feel for you in my heart for the loss of your mom. My brothers and I have been like distant family to you both seeing as we grew up next door to one another. What irony or providence that we would lose our mothers almost 3 months apart from one another. We have been told that losing our mom in such a sudden way may enable us to comfort others who experience the shock and sting of grief's cutting edge when a loved one is ripped from your life, without the chance to say goodbye. We are comforted by the knowledge that our Mom is with her Lord, robed in HIS glory enjoying the PERFECT peace that only eternity with HIM can bring. We are now comforted to know that her earthly neighbor/friend has now joined her eternally. Our prayers and thoughts are with you both and with Mickey too. Anna was such a special person, and I will never forget that incredible smile and contagious laugh of hers. May you feel God's arms wrap around you through your pain and grief... With Love, Tina Demos Byrd ..lived next door to Anna from when I was 6 mos. old until college.
