“ It's taken me 10yrs to say this out in writing so everyone can read but, that's okay cause I know you'd understand. You where the best mom a kids could ever want you was the coolest woman I've ever came advised too this day lol You loved us boys and did everything you could for us we may never had the best clothes, bike, shoes or whatever but you and Dad made sure we had what we needed. I love you more then anything an I wish that I could change that day you left us. I know that if I never yelled at you that day and acussed you of what I did you'd most likely still be here.

“ I just want to say how sorry I am about Annie. I worked with her years ago at Family & Childrens Day Care. We were really close friends. I remember how excited she was when she married Chris. I remember her having Christopher. She was a great person. I seen her at the Anderson Speedway several times. I will miss her. God bless you all.
