“ I was saddened when I received a telephone call telling me of Ardella's passing. I knew Ardella when we were teen agers and often when home from school with her to spend the night. She had television and my family had not purchased a set yet at that time. Michael, I am so sorry for your loss. Your grandmother talked much about you and always sent me your latest school picture with her Christmas card. This past Christmas she wrote on the back of your picture that you would be 13 years old in January. I hope your memories of your grandmother will be a comfort to you. You are in my prayers.
