“ Aunt Sis and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your beautiful Husband and Fatehr. He will be dearly missed by all of us. I feel so blessed that you all always came back here to spend time with family. I will never forget the never ending nights at grandma's kitchen table playing cards til all hours of the night. all the laughs, and jokes, just all the good times. He is now where we long to be, Dancing with the angels. I know we will see him again someday. I would love to hear from you all. you have my e-mail and i am on facebook. look me up. love you all Debbie Phillips

“ To the family, I just wanted to express my deepest sympathy to you and let you all know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Arlan was a very special person and will be missed by all. I enjoyed his smile and kindness very much. He always made you feel welcome rather you were family, once removed or not. He will be remembered and cherished forever. God Bless. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To my family: Every time I think of Uncle Shorty, I'll smile. He was one of the nicest people I ever knew and although I haven't been able to see him as often as I did when I was young, the memories I have of him I'll always remember. I never knew anyone that could jitterbug as well as he and Aunt Edith. I loved him and enjoyed him and I will miss him.

“ Arlan was to me a very special person in my life. I called him Dad, though I am not a blood relative. He "sort of" adopted me and treated me like a family member in the truest sense of the word. He never knew a stranger and would help anyone who needed a hand. His carpentry expertise was a gift he would share willingly to anyone in need of sound advice. There are too many qualities he possessed to mention them all and I will never see another deck of Hoyle cards without remembering the countless times he was my partner and the many victories we savored. My father died when I was fifteen years old and I am proud to say I was loved as a son by a man whose love was shared by so many people. We will meet again though it will be lonely until then. I want to thank every member of his family for sharing their dad with me, I feel very special for having known him and will miss him deeply.
