“ She taught me everything I know . i would stand in the kitchen with her for hours every day .she called me curly sue and always telling me not to count my chixkens before they hatch or to calm my little butt down and count to ten or shell beat my little ass with a flyswater . she always wanted me home withher everyday . if i stayed gone longer than a week she would kick me out or tell me I need to stay home. I always seemed to determinw her moods and make her daya better .I washerfirst great grand daughter & I slept in bed with her till I was 19 years old lol . she was my role model and i want to be just like her . when i think of her all I see is her pretty smile .

“ To Alisha and family of Artie who I just knew as simply Grandma I send my dearest condolences. She was such a sweet and loving person who always had a big hug for me when we were at gatherings. I know she is at peace with her husband now who she missed dearly. She was the best baker and always had a smile and great conversation. The holidays won't be the same without her. I know she is in heaven now doing the things she loves with her love.

I remember Mrs. Badger from being the only two story house on Hillside drive a long time ago. She went to St.Marys church with my mom. I remember that she was a very loving woman, mom and mother.
