Avis Lenore Frieling

May 18, 1934 - August 26, 2022

Avis was born May 18, 1934, in Chicago, Illinois to Albert and Effie Frieling. She was a graduate of Stanford University with a major in Art History. Most of her life, Avis lived and worked in Chicago. During her working career, she worked in several companies in Chicago including the Midwest Stock Exchange.

Upon retirement, she moved to Anderson, Indiana, and volunteered at the Anderson Museum of Art. She later became part of the staff working as a receptionist.

Avis loved opera and symphonic music and was active in the Guild of the Chicago Lyric Opera for many years.

She was preceded in death by her Mother and Father, Brother Gerald Frieling and special Aunt Dorothy (Auntie Dot). Survivors include sister-in-law Betty Frieling, nephew Randall Frieling, niece Kathy (Jon) Kroeze, niece LeAnne (Scott) Yoder, and several great nephews and nieces.

She is also survived by dear friends Tim Swain, Debbie Stapleton, and Chicago friends Peggy Hargrove and Jennie Riegheimer.

Memorial donations may be made to the Chicago Lyric Opera or the Anderson Museum of Art.

A private celebration will be held by the family.
