“ Barbara loved her savior, her family and church family of which she was an active part all of her life, from 1938 on. She lived her faith every day, every hour and every minute of her life. She was a gifted musician of which I am a recipient of a fraction of her talents. She knew where she was going and absolutely could not wait to get there. That was made crystal clear at the time of her passing. She was a fine example. She placed a request that her new body have long straight fingers so she could play the Steinway she also had desired. Sometimes in the quiet and stillness of the night I feel like I can hear her playing.
Mother, you are loved and missed. From your son Jon James.
Mother, you earned your home in Heaven . God bless you.

Too bad they didn't get her name correct! Geesh!
Weber not Weaver.

“ Having grown up in Anderson and Whetstone church I knew Barbara, her parents and sister Marilyn from my earliest memories. She was indeed a devoted musician even while suffering with crippling arthritis. I know she is enjoying heavenly music now and Marilyn, I hope those sweet memories of sister times will sustain you while you grieve her presence here on earth.
