“ Grandma Barb, Thanks for making so many special memories for me as a kid, you and Grandpa George's house was my favorite place to be watching the Wizard Of OZ in my sparkly shoes. It was always so fun, even when us girl got to giggling at night and you had to yell at us. I'm sorry I wasn't there for you as you were there for me. Thanks for teaching me about the spiritual world and introducing me to Camp Chesterfield. I am glad I you got to see me at my best. Please continue to provide me guidance and remind me of my faith and perseverance during the tough times ahead. Love you always, Bunky

“ My heart is filled with sadness for you, Linda, Bonnie, Debbie and Pam, on the loss of your mother. Treasure the many memories you were able to make with her. She had the most beautiful smile. Your cousin, Becky Simpson Rackel

Barbara Nell, you are forever my aunt, my sister, my friend and the best memories of my childhood. You were my big sister when I had no sister to talk to, you were my aunt when I had no mother's shoulder to cry upon, you were my friend when I grew up enough to know what a friend was. You were the smile and laughter when we were making popcorn or fudge in grandma Pike's kitchen...the memories and tears I shed for those long gone days are for the kindness and for the love that you gave me when I was a little kid running after and teasing you. The laughter we shared with our little gang on the farm..with the sunny summer days, running down the dusty country road with Tippy trailing behind, will never be forgotten. Oh, what a life we had!
