“ I never will forget our first date. I met Scott at Veronica and Steve Summitts house to have dinner and he kept staring at me all evening. At one point I went into their kitchen to grab a drink and Scott followed me in. We stood in there for a few minutes and I started to leave the kitchen and he jumped in front of me and kissed me!! It was over the top and I fell in love with him right then and there. Scott & I had a rough 5 years of marriage with his illness but I never stopped caring about him because I knew that his illness didn't define who he really was inside. Scott was a beautiful soul and it truly saddens me that he suffered so much in this life when he was such a good and decent and funny person. Our son Matthew has so many of his mannerisms that I just am in awe of him and how much I see Scotty in him. Thank you honey for our son and I'm sorry our love was not strong enough to help you. I will always hold you dear in my heart and remember our final days together visiting and remembering the good times!!!

“ Scott you were such an awesome brother and I have many fond memories of our childhood and as we became adults. You were always smiling and so funny. I am going to miss you so much. I know you are with God and can walk again. That brings a smile to my face. God received a beautiful angel. RIP sweet brother and know we will meet again. I love you with all my heart!!
