“ Betty was the ""Grandmother" I never had, She took care of Me a few times when I was Growing Up, Got My Fingers Smashed in A Door while staying at her House, by another little boy that Betty was taking care of the same time she was watching over me. 43 years later Betty and I always had a laugh about that. Im so Glad I knew Betty and Lyle they were very Good Friends with My Mother and Father, Arthur and Edith Darrah, and Spent many a day on their Farm in South Anderson. Heaven Has Gained another Angel for its Heavenly Choir. My Condolences To Her Children, and Grandchildren. Betty will Be Missed.
