“ Most of my memories of your mother Susie are from our TTU days. She would come and things would liven up around campus. I remember one of the times we were in her home while we were on deputation. Remember the cake decorated for one of the girls? It was quite an art piece. Was it Big Bird? When I saw the way you decorated for her 88th birthday, I thought surely your mother was doing much better. So it was a shock to read that God had called her home. Our prayers for you Susie and the rest of the family as you walk through these difficult days in preparation for her service. May God receive the Glory.
