“ Paula -- So sorry to hear about your mom. I just got back from Seattle last night late Sat and saw where her funeral was yesterday. I know when I saw you last week she wasn't doing well. You and James have done a remarkable job with her since she has been ill. I was so sorry when I read of her passing. Just know I'm thinking of you and Carolyn and your entire family. Susie Lacy

“ Mamaw was a wonderful woman who worked so hard her whole life to make everything special. From the delicious meals and pies she prepared for our family to the way she decorated and cared for her home showed her love for those around her. She had a beautiful touch for decorating and gardening and we felt welcome and loved when we visited her home no matter how busy she was making preparations to serve us. My holiday memories are some of the best anyone could ever imagine because of this amazing lady and I will hold them dear in my heart forever.
