“ Scripture asks, who can find a virtuous woman? One of the attributes of a virtuous woman is that her children call her blessed. The manner in which you cared for your mother is a testament to her love of the Lord and love of her family. You have a beautiful legacy of faith, grace and service. We are praying for you, your wife and your father. Jesus said he was going away to prepare a place for us. He said in his father's house were many mansions. Take comfort in knowing that your mother has taken possession of her mansion. AWL (always with love), Aaron and Jeannine

“ Our prayers are with you and your family, Tom and Jim. So many great memories from "back in the day!" What a comfort to know that she is in a much better place with Julie and is most likely singing a beautiful song! The picture you chose captures her personality perfectly and it is just how I remember her! Praying that your memories will be a comfort, Tom.

“ Jim and Lou, we are so sorry to hear about your loss and wish to express our heartfelt condolences to you and your family. We have had the privilege to meet, and chat with, Bev a few times over the years and recall her as being a friendly soul. In the Bible it is written that blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. During these times, know that you are not alone and we are always here for you! You both are in our daily thoughts, prayers, and always in our hearts as loving members of our extended family. Again, deepest condolences to our dearest friends, and your entire family. Love always, Robert Carter and Brad Auler.
