“ I am so saddened to learn that Bev lost her battle. Even though I've probably only met her once or twice at the church, she was a very dear friend of my mom's. She and my mom Joy Blake were in a women's small group together. My mother is broken-hearted at the loss of her friend. Please know that I join so many in others in keeping all of your family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ We loved Bev. What a wonderful, Christian lady! She certainly reflected God's love. She'll be waiting anxiously for her family and friends at the Gate of Heaven. Don't disappoint her!! Don - may God give you, and your family, peace and comfort. You all did an excellent job caring for Bev.
