

Billie Arlene VanHorn

September 22, 1928 - August 1, 2006

Pendleton - Billie Arlene Terrill Van Horn, 77, Pendleton, went to be with the Lord, August 1, 2006 at Rawlins House, following an extended illness. She was born September 22, 1928 in Huntington, West Virginia, and had been a resident of Anderson since 1954. Billie retired from Delco Remy in March 1986. She had three home based businesses - Sassco Aloe Vera Products, New Image, and a sewing business. She was affectionately known as the "Duck Lady" because of her unique concrete duck clothing. Billie was a member of East Side Church of God, and the Lamplighter's Sunday School class. She loved helping people and gospel music. Billie's family would like to express appreciation for the loving care she was given by the staff in the Alzheimer's Unit at Rawlins House and all of the prayers by members of East Side Church of God. She is survived by her beloved husband of 60 years, Edward Van Horn; daughter, Karen & husband, Ray Norrod of Anderson; two sisters, Marjorie & husband, Dallas Fields of Chesterfield and Diana & husband, Ferrell Hedges of Trinity, Alabama; brother-in-law, Larry Humerickhouse of Anderson and sister-in-law, Patty Terrill of Ashland, Kentucky; grandchildren, Shelbi Johnson of Fishers, Indiana; Greg & wife, Laura Norrod of Chicago, Illinois, Cheri & husband, Andre Moore of Indianapolis; and Tami Norrod of Anderson; several great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lacy Ernest and Dollie Josephine Cook Terrill; a brother, Charles E. Terrill of Ashland, Kentucky and a sister, Myram J. "Terri" Humerickhouse of Anderson. “ Karen, Our deepest sympathy goes to you and your dad at this time. We share the sorrow you have now. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. I have great memories of staying overnight at your place. Your mom and dad were both so kind and nice to everyone. Remember watching King Kong and how scary the movie was??
Fondly, Betty and Tom Moore
