“ I will always remember the gruff, grumpy guy I first met when I joined the Lodge. As an employee, I got to see the real guy underneath that stiff exterior. I enjoyed coming into work before we'd open and have customers. During the "quiet" time Bill would sit in the social quarters and tell me stories from his days of growing up in Kansas, his jobs, his family and always about baseball. Bill was a big softie at heart. He was very concerned when my husband Danny had his bout with cancer and a stroke. Any time I would see Bill he would always ask how Danny was doing. I am so happy he was able to see his "cubbies" win the world series. He and I shared a love of baseball. (even tho I liked the Yankees! lol) You will be missed my friend. I am honored to have known you. May you rest in peace in Gods loving arms.

My husband and I would go to the Moose and I would look around going where the heck did my husband go... I would peek in Bills office and sure enough those two sitting there talking about gosh knows what I would just excuse myself and move along... All thought Bill was a mean ole' tough guy but his closest knows he was hard on the outside and a softie on the inside... Rest in peace Bill Kinley you and Cheever's are talking about the good ole' city working days now and chillaxing'... Our thoughts and prayers are with the Kinley family as they go through their grieving process. May your greatest memories carry you through this tough time... Love, Jim & Tina Owens
