“ Each and every day, many moments, I think of the joy my best friend has brought to my life. This wonderful warm feeling has endured since 1952, when we first met, as a cold little boy looked into my window, on a cold November rainy day. This enjoyable relationship endured, thanks to the two families we were so lucky to have. We cherished so many golden memories, such as loves of dogs, summer camps, tree houses, backyard ball games, hiking trips.

Jack taught me how to swim, and instilled in me a competitive spirit through all sports, manifested through many neighborhood sandlot battles. We enjoyed Colorado ski trips, concerts, auto races, and just hangin out with Jack and Debbie's cats and dogs. I thank God for my buddy and will miss him dearly.

“ Jack had a pervasive positivity with a disarming manner and was always generous with time and a listening ear.

His love for his family and concern for the plight of others was always apparent. The world is a better place due to this empathic, honest, noble father and friend. We all miss you so much Jack and hope you are no longer suffering.

“ My favorite and best swim coach who came to my rescue when AHS was denying women’s rights to a swim team. Forever in my heart.

I am so sorry for your loss. He was truly a great human.
