“ I remember the first time I ever met Bobbie. Robert had gone to Indiana and He went up and got her to bring her back for a visit. They came into the house and and I thought " Oh my, what a short woman. THis is a first, not many people are shorter than me!!" We started talking right off the bat and got along great. She was here for several days and she loved it when I would grill out. She loved hamburgers hotdogs too off the grill. We made plenty and for every meal she would heat up a hamburger and swear that particular on was better than the one before, when they all came from the same cow! Everynight she and I would sit out on the back deck. She loved the back deck cause we had a canopy of shade from the trees and the deck was built on the hillside. We would sit out there forever til early in the morning just talking. We would talk about this that and the other. Bobbie had no problem of talking or running out of subject matter!!! Those who know her know that! During the afternoon we would get in my car and put Robbie who was 3 or 4 at the time in the car seat and take off. We did not know where we were going when we left. I would show her the local sites and landmarks, there are plenty here in the Daniel Boone National Forest. She enjoyed the lake and the dam, the spill way you name it she enjoyed all things and was always a happy person. If she saw a road and wanted to know what was on it we just turned and checked it out. That is where she and I got in a pinch and we had a great laugh over it for years. She went back to Indiana and told everyone that I was the best driver in the world. She was amazed that I got us out of the "situation" and did not put us plunging over the mountainside. She was to say the least "impressed" with my fancy work of getting Bonneville turned on a small road and not get it stuck. Once it was over I to breathed a little easier. She really loved it here and enjoyed her visit despite her crippled knees. She never complained about them. She truely loved her children and would have done anything for them. And she loved the Lord. She did not have much in possesions but as far as she was concerned she had everything and was as happy as a lark. Very much the optomist. As far as she was concerned all her riches were in heaven and she was looking forward to getting there with no looking back. Now she has a new body with new knees now she can jump and shout and run all she wants with no pain. So Bobby you will be missed by many people but there are plenty of stories that will be told over and over again at gatherings all around in your absence but you will not be forgotten. You saw to that while you were here. Take care and we will see you later!

“ 6For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. 7I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day?and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing. 2 Timothy 4: 6-8 Nikki and Family, I have been moved by the comments already found here-especially from the AME Church. We are all blessed in life to be touched by God directly and through witnesses of His love. Thanks be to God for Bobby who was one of those beloved witnesses for the LORD. Indeed she has finished the race and inherited glory. AMEN!

“ Bobbie is my mentor and most loyal, loving, and committed friend. Her face is always shining and smiling with her eyes lit up and sparkling. She could laugh even when it hurt to laugh. She was and still is a yielded vessel always about her Father's business, extending His love and blessings to all who enter her path. I know our heavenly Father often chuckles at her boldness and child like faith as He swells with pride and smiles upon her. She is with me now and forever as our love is strong and bonds us together.
