“ I know how hard it is to loose a parent. Both Mom and Dad have past and even though I greatly miss them, memories of them carry me past my grief. Just as your fondest memories of your Dad will help you. But more importantly, we can all celebrate that just like my parents, your Dad is now in heaven, fully restored, no longer burdened by infirmity. Take care of each other and know that there are many who are lifting each of you up in prayer during this difficult time.

“ I will always have the deepest admiration for Bob. He was one of the first people I met when I married John and moved to Lapel and he always went out of his way to accommodate my grocery needs as well as the needs of Lapel. He was such a respected pillar of the community and will be sadly missed by all; especially our family.
