“ With a deeply broken heart, I am remembering so many moments between my Aunt Brenda and me. There are enough to fill pages and pages. See? From very early on my Aunt was my friend. I remember just riding in the car feeling so grown up. She never spoke to me as a child, always her buddy. Whether we were just going to the Ben Franklin to buy Halloween decorations, or later on more grown up shopping at Castleton mall. She loved that I am an actor, and listened to my takes as if I had won an Oscar. What I remember most is the fact that she loved me so hard unconditionally. My relationship with Aunt Brenda is rare and treasured. My heart will become less broken, but my soul will always hurt a little deeper.

I love you Brenda, always and forever,

♥ Todd
