“ Thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. My husband Elmer grew up in Brocton-Mrs. Miller was one of his Sunday School teachers. Elmer was younger but always thought a lot of Bruce, they are probably talking over old times as I send this email.

“ Marilyn & Barry, Josh, Joe, and Steve, I found out about Crackdad's passing today from Josh. I am very saddened to learn of this -especially because of the great love you all shared with him. This must be an extremely difficult time. I'm praying for comfort for you all ? yet I also rejoice because his passing was peaceful from what I am told. Crackdad was ?and always will be a great person to us all. It was great to see Josh, Joe, and Steve spend some good time with him this last year. I am going to miss his stories and jokes and way he made us all smile so easily. You can tell he really cared about making people feel good. I will likely arrive sometime between 6:30 and 6:45 PM tomorrow night. Despite that it may be difficult for him right now too being away from you, he is likely catching up on things with Ruth, and those others he so sincerely has been missing over the last few years. Again, you and he are all in my continued prayers. With Sympathy, Brad Brunner

“ Marilyn, Josh, Joe, Steve: I am very sorry to learn, through Steve, at Marsh Food Store, that Bruce passed away. I am going to "try" to get back in time to come to the Funeral Home. I am in Rising Sun, Indiana, at an AD\'s meeting for District 4 and will return Thursday in late afternoon. I always enjoyed having conversations with Bruce and when I drove past on Water Street. I always honked and waved when he was outside mowing. He always waved back. Bruce was the person to lead me to driving Mercury Marquis and Crown Victorias. I always drove Lincolns , but Bruce told me they were the same cars; only different fronts and backs. It sure saved me a lot of money! I am sure all of you will have fond memories of Bruce and share them over the years. I will "try" to get to the funeral home Thursday after I return. I do want to see Josh. Again, my sympathy to all of you. Steve Cherry
