

Bryan Ray Cookman

September 6, 1957 - January 11, 2021

Bryan R. Cookman, 63, of Anderson, passed away January 11, 2021, at Lindberg Crossing after an extended illness. He was born in Anderson, Indiana where he lived his entire life.

Bryan graduated from Lapel High School in 1975 and graduated from Anderson Vocational School with an Associates Degree in HVAC. He started his career with Nardco before opening his own HVAC business. After selling his business, he was employed by the Engineering Department at St. John's Hospital.

Before the worsening of Bryan's Multiple Sclerosis, he was an avid cook, skeet shooter, and golfer. He enjoyed watching and talking about the Indianapolis Colts, NASCAR, and Indiana University basketball.

Bryan is survived by his loving daughter, Jama (Ryan) Ott; granddaughters, Keira and Gabriella Ott; sister, Beth (Fred) Glynn; niece, Jayda Glynn; Melanie Cookman; and several other supportive friends and family members.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Donald and Dorothy (Smith) Cookman.

The family would especially like to recognize the caring and compassionate staff at Lindberg Crossing Senior Living and The Hospice Group. Words can not express how grateful we are for each one of you.

In place of flowers, please consider a donation to the National MS Society in Bryan's honor.

Due to the COVID-19 restrictions, private services will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ Dear Jama,
So very sorry for the loss of your Father. I have many good memories of being with you and your Dad. Please give my condolences to your Mother. Sorry we couldn't be present at this tough time
Jeff Hollon

Jeffery Hollon - January 19, 2021 at 08:59 AM

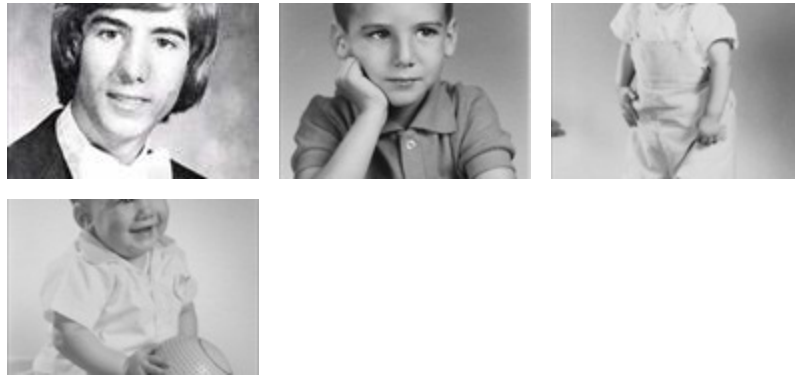

JO

Thank you so much Jeff. There were indeed a lot of good memories with our families.
Jama

Jama Ott - January 19, 2021 at 06:24 PM

“ 4 files added to the album Memories Album

Ted Smith - January 12, 2021 at 12:40 AM

JO

Thank you, Ted. These pictures are wonderful.
Jama

Jama Ott - January 19, 2021 at 06:24 PM