“ I always liked Clorman -- aka "Old Smokey" because he was so tall when he married my sister Twyla. His gentle ways, quiet humor, quick smile, and tolerance of others was most unusual and wonderful to experience. When he traveled, years ago, he wouldn't take the interstate; he always wanted the state highways because he wanted to see the towns ... God bless his soul!!

“ When Clormand and my sister Twyla were married, I was attending college in Anderson, IN. I spent many happy weekends at their house. It became a second home to me. It's been many years and many miles, but the memory of these years are still bright. Clorman had a full life, and was loved by many. We will miss him.

“ We all have a place to fill in this life, Clorman certainly filled that place, he had a wide range of interests, be it his daily job, his shoe repair, organ repair, whatever it was, he took it on full speed ahead. He leaves a "hole" in other peoples lives, he will be missed by all those that knew and loved him.

“ Uncle Clorman will be missed. He was a lot like our Dad, Arthur Jr. He had that sense of wit and humor about him that made people like him. Our sympathy goes out to the family.

“ My mother, Freda L Webb Reynolds and I offer our deepest sympathy. My mother is a cousin to Clorman and a niece of his father Arthur Sylvester. During my researching our Hollingsworth family, in 2009 I was able to put mom and Clorman on the phone with each other. They talked for almost an hour before hanging up. At that time Clorman was pretty adamant about coming to see mom but unfortunately his and her health issues prevented that from happening. May God Bless.
