“ Becky & John: With deepest sympathy I send this note. I was so sorry to see of the death of your only son I have a son & I can only imagine the sorrow. I will be out of town on Saturday but will be thinking & praying for you. I wanted to send a card but couldn't tell from the phone book which one was your address. Please take care & may God bless you he did, with a son. Betty

“ John and Becky and family.. I know there are no words of comfort for you. Just know you and your family have been in our prayers during this horrible time. I'm just really at a loss for words, please understand. We love you very much, you are such good people. Some day we'll understand why this happened, but only in God's time. Love, Carole and Walter
