

Carman E. McEwen

January 17, 1919 - February 19, 2010

East Pembroke - Rev. Carman E. McEwen, 91, of East Pembroke, went home to be with his Lord on Friday February 19, 2010 at the Crossroads House in Batavia. Rev. McEwen was born January 17, 1919 in Kars, Ontario, Canada, a son of the late Hammond Earnest and Margaret Ross McEwen. He was a graduate of Brockville Bible College in Canada and Marion College in Indiana. Rev. McEwen was a retired minister, serving God in Canada, Indiana and New York. He was a man of God and served whenever needed. He dearly loved his wife, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and was a wonderful mentor and role model. He enjoyed gardening and was an avid reader. He was a passionate student of the Bible; always memorizing scripture and writing sermons. Rev. McEwen will always be remembered for the legacy that he has left of a deeply rooted faith in God, both by his words and actions, his angelic smile, his hearty laugh, his many acts of kindness, and his soft and gentle ways. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Lyla Whiteman McEwen; children, Gary & wife Nancy McEwen of Anderson, Indiana, Laverne & wife Linda McEwen of Hamburg, and Darlene & husband Terry Ross of East Pembroke; eight grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and another great grandchild expected in July; sister, Eunice Coburn, brother, Sterling & wife Nellie McEwen all of Canada; several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by three brothers, one sister and one great grandchild. Visitation will be from 3 to 7 PM on Tuesday, February 23, 2010 at Bohm-Calarco-Smith Funeral Home; 308 E. Main Street; Batavia. Services will be Wednesday, February 24, 2010 at 10:00 AM, at Emmanuel Baptist Church; 190 Oak Street; Batavia, with Pastor Dale Gooch, Pastor Matt Gold, and Pastor Eldon Craig officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, Corfu. Memorials may be made to Crossroads House, P.O. Box 403, Batavia, NY 14020.
