“ TO: Fran and Merle, I have fond memories of meeting Carol at various Church of God meetings. I appreciated her participation. That was even more meaningful when I found she was the mother of Fran. Then when Merle and Fran married I thought "Good for them." I, along with you, will cherish fond memories of Carol.

“ What a wonderful person Carol was. I know she will be missed by her family. My memories of her and Smitty's life here in Vancouver is a treasure. We loved her and she loved our family. She was a devoted secretary, daycare director, parishioner, etc. for many years. She was Gerald's right hand "man" for many of those years, a great help when we first came to VFCOG to help us acclamate.
