

Carolyn Cunningham

October 3, 1929 - October 10, 2022

Carolyn Cunningham, of Anderson, passed at the age of 93, on October 10, 2022, at IU Health North Hospital in Carmel. She was born to Carl and Vera McCarty October 3, 1929, in Burlington, Indiana. Carolyn graduated from Anderson High School. She had worked as an Instructor for Indiana Bell until the age of 30. She went back to work after her children were in college and was an Executive Secretary for Delco-Remy Division of General Motors. She was invested in numerous community organizations and groups. Carolyn was a member of the Anderson Art League, the Alexandria Art Circle and Tri Kappa. She enjoyed playing bridge with several groups. Her group of friends in Alexandria had played together for 40 years. Carolyn and her late husband of almost 70 years, Robert Cunningham, enjoyed traveling together. They traveled to Italy, Australia, Ireland, and several other countries. Her favorite country visited was Austria. She was an avid reader, accomplished artist, wonderful decorator and loved being a mom, grandma, and great-grandma. She is survived by her children Cathy (Michael) Johnson of Carmel, IN and Hal (Nancy) Cunningham of Valparaiso; grandchildren Nathan (Kendra) Johnson, Seth (Kelsey) Johnson, Christine (Adrian) Summers, Lauren and Hannah Cunningham. She was also blessed with five great-grandchildren who lovingly call her Gigi.

Visitation will be held at Loose Funeral Homes and Crematory, 200 West 53rd Street, Anderson, IN 46013, on Saturday, October 15, 2022. Visitation begins at 11:00 am with a memorial service at 1:00 pm with Pastor Dennis Zirkle officiating. Burial will take place at the K of P I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Frankton.

Contributions may be made to Meadowbrook Baptist Church where she was a member.

“ I did Carolyn's hair for many years. We always had a good time, talking about art and events. We had a joke about our favorite architect, Frank Lloyd Wright. She loved the Falling Waters house. I'd say have you seen falling waters? And then she'd start. I've missed her when she moved to Indy. My condolences to all. IRENE SHOEMAKER
